Recruitment of Executives: WebOps, Alcheringa 2023

Part - 1

HTML and CSS

Description

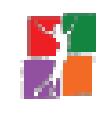

This is the first part of a full fledged web application that we are going to build in this course.

This year's topic is based on social media platforms like instagram and we will be building our own platform from scratch!

In this week we are going to prepare all the static pages that are required for the web-app.

Task

Recreate the website attached below. You may add your own inputs into the design along with this →
